

New Jersey's Do Not Call law is a good one, approved overwhelmingly by consumers and citizens across the state. There is a media saturation beyond the pale in this state from every possible angle: radio, television, magazines, the internet, flyers, mailings, etc. and on and on. The fact is most of use are just sick and tired of having it intrude into every aspect of our lives, especially when we're in the middle of a family dinner or a home project, answering the phone only to ellicit a programed talking head at the other end of the line, probably already having been told on multiple occassions not to call, once again badgering us about things we don't want or can't afford. Please respect the privacy of the many people who have initiated a "DO NOT CALL" notice to prospective solicitors. Thank you.
